

*August 1st/BBQ Competition & Community Fundraiser
In Loving Memory of Our Fallen Brother, Ryan Dintleman*

On July 31st and August 1st, we aren't just lighting grills—we're honoring a brother. We are hosting the Ryan Dintleman Classic BBQ Competition, a professional regional competition sanctioned and judged by the St. Louis Barbecue Society (SLBS).

This isn't a backyard cookout; it's a high-stakes showdown. SLBS-certified judges will be scoring the region's best pitmasters on the "Holy Trinity" of BBQ: Appearance, Taste, and Tenderness

The Mission Behind the Smoke

We are doing this to celebrate Ryan Dintleman, a powerhouse journeyman wireman and a brother to the core. Ryan lost his life while doing what he did best, helping a friend with a home project.

To honor his legacy of service, this IBEW/NECA collaboration will benefit:

- EWMC Coats 4 Kids & IBEW Local 1 Relief Fund
- Safe Horizon (Supporting victims of crime)

Why Partner With Us?

A sanctioned event of this caliber draws a serious, dedicated crowd, giving your brand a chance to connect with people who truly value quality and community.

We invite sponsors to join us for one of the most anticipated community fundraising events of the year. Your support helps us deliver an unforgettable experience while providing high-visibility promotion for your brand. We are seeking donations for our silent auction and prize purses for the category winners. In return, your business receives the following:
